Abstract: The beginning of surgical learning in Romania started in 13th century, but even if the surgery and medicine are mutually dependent, some historians think that surgery may be the oldest of all medical activities. But, like in the entire world, surgery wasn't medical discipline and the surgeons wasn't prepare in medical school. That's why knowing and understanding the birth of surgery like a medical discipline for studies is interesting including in Romania.

Key words: Surgery, history, Romania.
