

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLASSES - TECHNOLOGICAL CULTURE VERSUS HUMANITIES

Ioana Paula ARMĂȘAR*

Abstract: This work is a brief approach of technological culture and humanities, showing the necessity of considering foreign language classes for technical faculties students as a means of educating and developing some linguistic abilities and performances, of depositing information that will influence their inner structure.

Key words: culture, technology, science, civilization, competence, performance, specialization, education.

* . Dept. of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Transilvania University of Brașov