

DIFFICULTIES IN TRANSLATING ECONOMIC TEXTS

Daniela TURCU<sup>1</sup>

Abstract: This paper is an analysis of the translations of an economic text and the errors that are made by the students in their attempt to give an accurate and correct lection of the original text. I also want to show the importance of the use of a technical dictionary and the necessary knowledge that the students have in a specific field, in our case in the field of Economics.*

Key words: form, content, translation, errors, economic dictionary.*
