

HOW TO APPROACH THE PROJECT "INCREASING THE ROMANIAN LIFE QUALITY"

Constantin DUGULEANĂ¹

Abstract: Human sustainable development is a priority of all the high level meetings and a permanent theme of international institutes. Human quality life is determined by a wide range of economic, social, demographic, cultural, educational and health factors. The paper presents the approaching of a project for "Increasing the Romanian Life Quality", describing the management steps and the methodology for the kind of analyses which better describe this objective.

Key words: sustainable development, human security, life quality.

¹ Dept. of Finances, Accounting and Economic Theory, Transilvania University of Braşov